

Catalyse Mentorship Program

Application Form - close 13 October 2024

The Catalyse Mentorship Program is designed to address the under-representation of women in leadership roles, increase gender equity and to increase the retention of women across all sectors in health and STEMM.

The program offers women the opportunity to reflect on and grow their leadership capabilities, build professional skills and networks and more effectively navigate career progression.

Applicant Details:

Name:

Current Job Title:

Current place of employment:

Email:

Phone:

In a separate document please answer the following questions:

1. In 500 words or less, outline your motivation for applying for this program
2. In 300 words or less, outline what your expectation are for this program
3. In 300 words or less, outline your level of commitment to your personal and professional development pathway and this program should you be successful

Selection Criteria: please note preference for this round will be given to applicants living outside of Darwin

- A female working in health, medical or STEMM sectors in the Northern Territory. Both academic and non-academic staff are encouraged to apply.
- A minimum of 3-5 years professional experience.
- Demonstrated aspirations of a leadership position in the sector in either academic or non-academic capacity.
- Has the capacity, availability and commitment to participate in targeted workshops and to work with a mentor for the entire duration of the program.

Applications will be assessed against the following measures:

- Demonstrated need for professional development and mentorship / 10
 - Expected impact or contribution to applicant's career journey/progress / 10
 - Realistic expectation of the program / 5
 - Commitment to the program and to own professional development pathway / 5
- Total / 30

Catalyse Program Manager

Email: catalyse@menzies.edu.au / Phone: 8946 8408

